A brand new e book with a brand new standpoint. I have read through and that i am certain that i am going to gonna go through again once more in the future. Its been developed in an remarkably simple way in fact it is merely right after i finished reading through this book in which basically modified me, modify the way in my opinion.

For a further confirmation, God hath ratified this with a most solemn asseveration, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live; turn ye, turn ye, from your evil ways, for why will ye die, O house of Israel Ezek. xxxiii. 11. Upon which, saith Tertullian, God would fain have us believe him; adding, Lib. de Ptenit. c. 4, Happy are we, for whose sake the Lord vouchsafeth to swear; but most unhappy, if we believe him not when he sweareth! So that, the love of God is universal; he would have none to perish, by an absolute irrespective decree; but the cause is mans own voluntary rejecting the love and grace of God, which comes by Jesus Christ. CHAPTER V. About the month called June, 1700, Richard Claridge removed from London to Barking in Essex, where he dwelt, and kept a boarding-school for some years. Having observed, while he walked in communion with the Baptists, a sober and sensible remnant among that people, of whom he was persuaded that they feared the Lord, and were waiting for the consolation of Israel; he was now drawn forth in a spirit of love and compassion toward them, to write the following epistle; which for the sake of such serious enquirers, is here published. To the people called...
