Three thousand years ago, the Magus came from the stars, forging the familias into immortal sorcerers with blood communion. He slashed his palms and bled lustrous ichors into chalices, stripping himself of dread powers whilst they drank his essence. Each communion drained him profoundly, and as he withered away, he hoarsely whispered dire warnings to his newly anointed disciples. The Magus foretold the coming of ancient horrors that would devour their very souls if they practiced magic openly, and swore them to eternal secrecy. He bade them knight only a chosen few with the sacred blood ritual. Then, in the stillness of dawn, he hobbled away into the desert sands, never to return. . . . until now. As cosmic hunters descend and primordial foes awaken to settle old scores, an intergalactic conflict will pit the Magifamilia against the Iglesiasians and the Alchemist Cartel. Mafioso wizardry, angelic abominations, and futuristic weaponry collide in this genre-bending Lovecraftian fantasy series, which will span six novels. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
