Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Our New Home: And Old Times The steam heat is furnished by two large boilers, which can be used together or separately. The plans were made to take care of a sprinkler system which will be put in later, after our stock placing arrangements are completed. The historical feature of the site is perpetuated by bronze tablets and the name of the building. In the demolition of the old buildings many interesting finds were made and these will be fully described in a history of the property now about to be published. The weight capacity of the building is sufficient to load a freight train a mile long, thirty thousand pounds to the car. The building was erected by the president of our Com pany for the sole use of our business and is a physical illustration of the business principles and policies formed and followed in the development of our business. Unswerving fidelity to those characteristics which have enabled us to occupy what is said by many who have a knowledge of the facts to be the best building in America, devoted exclusively to an electrical supply business will be maintained.
