Would you like to Connect with your daughter and learn how best to guide her through her life? Do you ever feel worried your daughter just isn't ready for the outside world? Do you ever feel like she shuts you out and you don't know how to connect with her? Do you feel worried about talking to your daughter about sex and womanhood? So many of us parents, don't know how to approach our daughters. We have our idea of what we think is best for them but when we try to tell them we're met with resistance. Often the thought of bringing up sexual topics make us cringe and want to shy away from. However it is our responsibility to best prepare our daughters for the changes they are going through and what's ahead of them in life. By reading this book you will learn some of the best ways to deal with these topics and you can choose which one will best suit your situation. It will also show you how sometimes even...
