[In stock in Australia now, for immediate delivery]- A young peasant in ancient Egypt, Papyrus is a mischievous boy, crafty and courageous. Protected by a magic sword, he saves the princess Theti-Cheri, daughter of the Pharaoh Merenptha, whose protector and confidant he becomes. He will be extremely busy protecting his friend from the plots woven by the priests of Amon or by cheating princes trying to make her disappear in this very precise reconstruction of old Egypt (the XIXth dynasty). In this episode . Papyrus and his friend Imhotep head off for Sakkarah, where a statue must be erected to give praise to the Pharaoh. While navigating the Nile, they save an old man threatened by a crocodile. In Sakkarah, the Pharaoh's life is threatened too: He has been poisoned. If he dies, the future will be very bleak . So our young heroes have the idea of letting the old man they saved play the role of Pharaoh, seeing as the two men look very much alike . But the deception may not last for long, and Papyrus has to find...
