Dog Ear Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Most people allow their disadvantages to get the best of them. Maybe, no one has ever taught them how to RISE. In life, we are faced with a plethora of unfavorable circumstances, sometimes surfacing as soon as we open our eyes as newborn babies. Whether these disadvantages are mental, physical, or situational, often these phenomena are inevitable. So, what do we do? Many of us might resort to self-pity, feeling as if life is unfair. As a result, we become submissive to the societal expectations of our disadvantages. However, others make an attempt to work through their difficulties, turning their unfavorable situations into favorable ones. These are the few individuals who have truly learned how to rise. This book is for all of those who have ever faced a difficulty, who were born with or live with a limitation, or who just feel as if life s hurts have minimized or immobilized them from living their best life possible. The author shares true and hopeful stories about how people, he has known, cope with life s disadvantages. He delineates five principles to teach us how to rise above our own. After you have read this inspirational book, you will feel empowered to Wake, Rise, and Smile. Austin J. Franklin Wake, Rise, and Smile Austin J. Franklin Bursting off the page with a level of wisdom that belies his young age, Austin Franklin has captured a deeply personal anthology testifying to the power of the human spirit.
