Written by college ministry expert, Chuck Bomar, College Ministry From Scratch provides simple tips and practical ideas for anyone looking to start something for college-age people in their congregation. Keeping in mind that a youth worker or volunteer launching a college ministry already leads a busy life, this book is easy to digest and offers insights on everything from leading overseas mission trips or winter retreats to leading a small group or Sunday school class. This handy resource addresses the simple, but often intimidating task of initiating meetings with students, and even offers a list of questions they can ask when having coffee with a student. Organized by topic, it's an easy book for leaders to jump in and out of, as they need it, and is sure to help any size church begin to meet the needs of the college-age people in their congregation. Editorial Reviews About the Author Chuck Bomar's vision is for every church to embrace college-age ministry as a vital part of their church. Founder of CollegeLeader and author of several resources, Chuck has dedicated much of his life to the cause of helping churches and denominations start and/or develop effective college-age ministries. After starting a college ministry from scratch and serving for nine years as a student ministry pastor, he is now lead pastor of Colossae in Portland, Oregon, where he lives with his wife Barbara and their two daughters, Karis and Hope. SPANISH BIO: La vision de Chuck Bomar es que cada iglesia adopte el ministerio universitario como parte vital de sus programas. Fundador de la organizacion 'Lider Universitario' y autor de varios recursos para el ministerio universitario, Chuck tambien ha ayudado...
