

Pistol Man (Paperback)

By Daniel Cassidy

Whimsical Publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The violent account of one man's rise to notoriety as an infamous gunfighter of the Old American West. In 1846, Nathan Delaney is only eight years old, when he is caught up in the turbulent struggle of the Mexican-American war. Travelling with a troop of Texas Rangers, Nathan quickly loses his innocence and childhood in the harsh, arid wastes of the Texas borderland in a series of brutal skirmishes between the hard-bitten Rangers and their Indian and Mexican foes. The war on the border is every bit as grim and brutal as the landscape it is fought over, and there are acts of savagery and torture on both sides. It is neither a time nor a place for a small boy, and with the Ranger troop surrounded on all sides and greatly outnumbered, Nathan must quickly learn to outgrow the boy in order to survive. Twenty years later, in the aftermath of another bloody and brutal conflict - the Civil War - Nathan is trying his best to put the years he has spent as a Confederate guerrilla fighter behind him. He...
