Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After forty-six year old Cheryl Rose marries sixty-eight year old James Bradley, their new life on the north side of Potts Mountain - in the small community of Paint Bank - becomes more challenging than this couple could ever have imagined. Hard work, lots of love, true commitment, and faith in God make this marriage work despite small town chitchat and numerous busybodies meddling into their personal lives. Battles to overcome addiction, complex health issues, and painful personal disappointments by judgmental and disapproving kith and kin complicate their lives even further. Cheryl and Jim discover the grace of God, his enduring mercy and his faithfulness in answering prayer a constant and present truth in their lives; strengthening them for God s will and glory making Potts Mountain Memoirs: Story of a Marriage a timeless love story. For their marriage to survive in a region where gossip is hung on the clothesline to flap in the wind and dry around the whispers of a growing populace, where one small mistake can mark your life like a tattoo that can never be erased, they realize they need to fully rely on each other and their faith.
