Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is not a mystery novel! It's no secret that people got hurt. That some of them were arsewipes. That I was betrayed or did the betraying. That I pulled off the first escape from the most powerful family of enchanter's in over a century-how else would I be here to tell you my story? So says Danny North Star (a.k.a Danika Anna O Connor O Griohttha); fugitive, thief extraordinaire, and the woman Alice Sinclair finds herself writing to through a magical journal-though it, and Danny, could just be a sign that Alice should go back on her meds. She's sure that's what her psychiatrist would say if Alice admitted her new pen pal was a woman who claimed to live in an alternate reality and who belonged to a rare breed of human, called a Conduit, who can do miraculous things with magic. Alice has spent her entire childhood wondering if she was insane or if all of the weird things that happen around her are real. She knows she didn't start that fire and she wasn't the one who almost killed the neighbor's boy, but she's never had proof and no one has ever believed her side of the story. So when Alice suddenly finds herself hiding out from an underground magical society its inhabitants call Wonderland, she still isn't one hundred percent certain if her fears are another check in the crazy column or a very real threat. One thing she does know is that the only one she can turn to for help is Danny, who says she has a contact in Alice's reality who might be able...
