FIFTY-EIGHT PAINTINGS BY HOMER D. MARTIN (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Fifty-Eight Paintings by Homer D. Martin The broad and placid waters of the lake fill the fore ground. The shores, low beyond the distant farther end, where the lake is narrow, spread out on either hand as the lake widens, and vanish from the picture near the middle distance. The season is autumn and the trees around the lake s borders are a rich brown, warming toward red. On the right the trees, growing thickly in their forest, rise on low mounds, and the taller ones raise their heads above the forestsmass like towering sentinels. On the left, dense growths of trees line the border of the water, a few tall pines being conspicuous near at hand. Farther back along the left, above the forest at the water s edge, the lofty moun tain peaks arise, here brown, yonder paling to a dis tant bluishsgreen. But above all is the wondrous sky one of the finest ever put in paint, it seems. In won: derfill aerial perspec tive are the tumbling, rolling, ?oating masses - solid, yet light as their substance suggests - glowing in sunset re?ections - white, gray, creamysyellow, rose: kissed - again taking a smoky hue - in a pale blue sky. The light in them is strong: est over the mountain tops, and re?ections of the clouds and woods appear in the rippling mirror of the lake. Formerly in the collection of the late Dr. Fessenden N. Otis, who obtained it from the artist. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
