Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Guide to the Study of Occupations: A Selected Critical Bibliography of the Common Occupations With Specific References for Their Study It is the purpose of this volume to present the latest and most authoritative material now available for educational and vocational guidance, for use in classes in occupations in the public schools, for vocation bureaus in colleges, and for librarians. The necessary inclusion of a considerable number of general reference books and textbooks should give it value not only in choosing a life work but in determining on courses of study, for students in vocational classes in the technical and higher institutions as well as in junior high and high schools. The establishment of life-career courses in the schools is much more widespread and significant than is generally supposed. One hundred and ninety-four high schools in eighteen North Central states already have classes in occupations. In Los Angeles, in October, 1919, out of 6061 children enrolled in the junior high schools of the city 2590, or 42.7 percent, were found in classes...
