Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Duncan of Kentucky, on the Assumption of Power by the Executive Mr. Duncan, of Kentucky, addressed the House as follows: I am pleased to find that a disposition has been manifested by some members on this floor to speak on the subject before the House. The message which has just been read was produced by a call suggested by the message of the 6th of July, which now lies upon your table, and which has found its way into the public journals. It appears to be, so far as I was able to judge by the reading of it by the clerk, but an elongation and defence of the principles set forth in the message of the 6th July. Sir, these two messages are, in my judgment, so full of error, and they contain propositions so startling, so repugnant to the first principles of our Constitution, and so subversive of every thing that has hitherto been regarded as settled by the laws of nations, that I cannot refrain from noticing some of...
