Baldy Mountain Media, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After experiencing multiple tragedies to her children, Cari Zorno concluded that an important step in her healing was to bring healing to others--especially youth, ill-equipped to handle loss. In TATTOOED by GRIEF, Zorno offers perspectives and tools for people who walk with youth experiencing grief. Zorno explains: How youth feel grief and loss like a tattoo etched on the heart Why grief is unique to each person What youth may not understand about grief's effects Skills for coping with challenging days like birthdays and holidays How to address hard questions about suffering and death You can help grieving youth learn what to expect and how to lean into their pain. They need a safe person to talk to. They need hope that goes beyond the grave. With your help a teen can see light even in the darkness of their grief. Zorno shows you how.
