THE HILLY ROAD (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While the war was raging in the early 70s, a young man left his home in Da Lat, a picturesque highland town in Central Vietnam where he spent his earlier years, for Saigon to continue his studies. There, he fell in love with his school friend's sister but the whirlwind of the fast paced materialistic Westernized life of the capital and his overwhelming loneliness led him down different roads. Could he find true love? First, he must love truly and truthfully. In the end he found the answer . just in time. The Hilly Road is his first story published in English after being translated from Con Duong Doc. . In his memory, it was a small house in the foothills. A garden ran all around the house with many rose bushes and a chicken coop in the back. Coming back to his mind was the image of his mother with her familiar purple sweater in the garden tending the roses and cutting a few for the vase in the living room, also the happy image of his family gathering around the dining table every evening in front of the fireplace while a light rain fell outside. But the most vivid memory was the night before Christmas Eve five years ago. When he, then fifteen years old, came home for the first time for a holiday vacation. Everything appeared blurred behind the drizzling curtain. As he was walking near home, he heard the sound of a motorbike coming from up high. A red bike emerged speeding down the dirt road from the hilltop. When it reached the foothill, he could see a couple riding. The girl sitting in the back behind...
