author. Paperback. Condition: New. Andy Atkins (illustrator). 388 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Welcome to Villa Lupus Unguis, the house of the Wolf Fang. While getting her fortune told in a Wiccan shop in Salem, Massachusetts, Arconas reality has a screaming meltdown. A past life as an obsessed Celtic witch awakens and shes flung headfirst into blood rites on a sacred island, captured by Romans, and sold in the markets of Pompeii as a pleasure slave to the sadistic owner of a gladiatorial school. Seeking revenge against Rome, Arcona lures a lonely Dacian gladiator into her bed and uses dark magic to turn him into an immortal blood-craving Slayer, a warlike vampire to be set loose on the Empire. Two millennia and an exploding Mount Vesuvius later, Tyr is still pissed off about being forced to spend eternity as a vampiric mercenary. Desperate to break the Slayer curse, he kidnaps Arcona, intent on learning the secrets carried in her blood. But theyre in for a surprise. Once these two damaged souls share their stories, the possibility of redemptioneven loveis offered. When another Slayer tries to claim Arcona as his blood slave, Tyr has to be her hero one last time. He loved her once but can a vampiric Slayer ever forgive his maker This is an epic tale of witchcraft, vampires, reincarnation, and a healing act of love. This item ships from multiple locations. Your...
