

Trinidad

By Godwin Kaur

Global Print Digital Nov 2017, 2017. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - Trinidad. Travel and Tourism, Business Environment. Trinidad is the more populous of the two islands, and a more energetic destination. The people of Trinidad are a lively group who like to have fun which may explain why steel pan music and the Limbo came from the island. The traveler who likes to get up and go will feel most at home here, with dance clubs, open air markets, and calypso tents being some of the most popular attractions. Festivals are extremely popular on the islands, and visitors will likely find an exciting event going on during their travels. The most well known festival is known as Carnival. Spectators at Carnival will be treated with dance-worthy musical performances, tantalizing island food and many other cultural festivities. Vacationers will be interested to learn that these islands are the birthplace of tropical staples like calypso music, steel drum bands and the infamous limbo dance. However, rich culture and heritage are not limited to festive music on Trinidad. 302 pp. Englisch.
