Amity Bridge Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 254 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. What can you do when you're the sole care-giver to a father with Alzheimers and a declining mother who demands all your attention? Add to this the fact that your parents' limited social security income places them in a low-budget care facility that requires your continual presence. How can you balance these needs with a demanding professional life and still pay attention to your family? The Good Daughter tells the story of an only child's decade-long struggle to adequately care for her parents while trying to maintain her own life. The daughter reverts to her childhood pattern of trying to please her difficult mother with the goal of receiving her unconditional love. Many life lessons emerge as she searches for a better relationship with her mother through encouraging her to tell her life story for the book you're writing about me. Through this process, the daughter revises the myth of her own life as she helps her mother validate 98 years of living. Added Bonus: A Selection of Questions for Life Review and A Discussion Guide for Book Groups. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
