Susan Slater, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The little village of Hill dale, in the Foothill Forest of Ireland holds many secrets. Magic is not uncommon and most of the villagers have one or more powers that they wield freely. Although Melinda Fairling has never been able to master any powers of her own, she still has hope that she will have a magical future. This, The first story of Melinda Fairling, is one of a great journey to find her home, family, and magic of her own. Since she was three years old Melinda has lived in the village of Hill Dale after getting separated from her mother deep within the forest on all Hallows Eve, Her birthday. Melinda never knew the truth of her parentage until her thirty-third birthday, She was most surprised! The truth of her past has led Melinda on a long and tediousness journey to find her mother, and to learn of her magic abilities that have arrived so suddenly. What will Melinda find at the end of her Journey? Just read and see.
