Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The South-African Mining Journal, Vol. 25: With Which Is Incorporated the South-African Mines, Commerce and Industries, ; Mar. 4, 1916 Vv e. Desire to call special attention to the presidential address delivered by Dr. Juritz to the South African Association of Analytical Chemists, which we have reproduced in full in this issue. The address is a remarkable one, and should be read from the point of view of its general application to the chemical profession throughout the Empire and not in relation to South Africa alone, In their bold statement of fact and clear and reasoned appeal to the profession and the public. Dr. Juritz's remarks present a striking contrast to the colourless platitudes on the same subject which have been so mercilessly inflicted upon us here by certain academic chemists since the outbreak of war. There is hardly a paragraph which does not deal trenchantly with some matter of importance demanding the consideration both of chemists and the Legislature. The address is an unbiased but scathing indictment, on the one hand, of the neglect of science by our Governments, and, on the other, of professional apathy and ineptitude. Dr. Juritz makes it clear that the State must bear no small proportion of the blame for past follies, but he also indicates plainly that chemists on their part owe a duty to the State. The Legislature and the public must be educated to appreciate the value of science and the task of instruction can only be undertaken by scientific men themselves. United effort is called for, and to secure this professional co-operation in its best sense and dictated by a high aim, is the first essential....
