Odessa the Professor (Paperback)

By Dr Melony Necole Thompson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Odessa and the Professor is a story of church abuse through Scripture use. A leader of a prayer circle tells manipulative lies and attributes them falsely to prophetic gift. She cruelly deceives a disciple faithful to her, but God enables the deceived to recover through prayer and wise counsel. The essential message of the book is the hope it gives to others similarly deceived, to break the yoke of deception and to experience through exercise of Christian forgiveness genuine closure. In subtle ways, Satan blinds persons caught up in small group abuse through scripture use. They live in denial of their distorted reality. In this book, the painful experiences of the naive Odessa and the profound counseling of her perceptive Professor provide the agonizing realities and analytic reflections needed to open the eyes of the deceived. In the process, sociological, psychological and theological complexities are unraveled through semantically sharp dialogue that informs, instructs and inspires. The power of aberrant Christian leaders over even intelligent professional persons must not be underrated. Certainly, in the Bahamas as well as in the wider...
