Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is an anthology of vignettes which explore the inner and outer experiences of the mind, and the grey zone between the two. It describes the paradoxes of human sexuality and sensuality; as well as discusses our emotional need for intimacy and our intellectual need for enlightenment. You will find bits of yourself, and your friends and acquaintances easily recognizable in the pages of this book. It is designed to push the memory of the reader to recognize simple but meaningful and familiar recollections. As you read some of the vignettes, you will experience the exactly phenomenon. Something you always knew, but never quite put into words. From WRITING in VAIN And you helped me understand That the privacy of my mind Means nothing, If it is kept private. There will be those, At different times of their lives, That may come across these thoughts And make them their own. From MESOAMERICA Those who dared to find art and optimism With the curve of a line A pose A vision A primal knowing That cries we are human . You are human Beyond the terminal reach of treachery and cruelty The spirit of man soars And the artist herds us Where we already know We must go From The THIEVES We give little things. nd try to take what we need From each other, Upside down In our relationship Sex before intimacy. Warily cautious of the other s intent Because . We are refugees from trust, We are refugees from intimacy. From PUSH and SHOVE I see deep into you And know your real needs And your goodness. And your reluctance to wear it on your sleeve n public. But, my...
