Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Poems of Adam Lindsay Gordon No one can ever write a life of Adam Lindsay Gordon without building on the foundation laid by the late Mr. Alexander Sutherland, whose early death is still deplored by all who value accurate and painstaking work in the field of literary biography. His seven chapters dealing with the poet, in The Development of Australian Literature, by Henry Gyles Turner and Alexander Sutherland; George Robertson Co., 1898 (now unfortunately out of print), give us the story of Gordon's career, and show us the man in his very habit as he lived. I have therefore in the main followed Mr. Sutherland's story, though here and there I have pointed out inaccuracies in detail, such as the fact that Gordon's only child who died at ten months old, was a girl and not a boy, and also that Gordon spent the last night before his death in a rather different fashion from that his biographer alleges. Nor have I scrupled to use Mr. Sutherland's very words, when they were fit and sufficient for my purpose. My debt to him is easily traceable throughout the first two sections of the Introduction, though from its very greatness I have not been able always to indicate it by quotation-marks. Mr. Turner has willingly and generously placed the book at my disposal for this purpose. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
