Brand New Book  Print on Demand .WORKING MEN OF ALL COUNTRIES, UNITE! Written in 1848 by political theorists Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, The Communist Manifesto has since been recognized as one of the world's most influential political manuscripts. Commissioned by the Communist League, it laid out the League's purposes and program. It presents an analytical approach to the class struggle (historical and present) and the problems of capitalism, rather than a prediction of communism's potential future forms. The seminal work contains Marx and Engels theories about the nature of society and politics, that in their own words, The history of all hitherto existing society is the history of class struggles. The book also briefly features their ideas for how the capitalist society of the time would eventually be replaced by socialism, and then eventually communism. The Communist Manifesto is an attempt to explain the goal of communism as well as the theory underlying the communist movement. It argues that class struggles and the exploitation of the lower class are the motivating factors behind historical developments leading to the communist movement. Marx insisted that his brand of socialism was different from others because it was scientifically based in the objective study of history, which he saw as a continuous process of change and transformation. Just as feudalism evolved into mercantilism and then capitalism, capitalism would inevitably give way to its logical successor, socialism, as the necessary result of class struggle. Marx discusses modern industrial society, which is characterized by class conflict between the bourgeoisie (the employers of the wage laborers and the owners of the means of production) and the proletariat (the wage-laborers who do not have their...
