Foundation University Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a rich, rich book . . . a treasure trove, in fact, of brilliant insights, spiritual integrity, and clean, clear analyses. I am far and away the better for having traversed its wide-ranging pages and can only hope that thousands of my fellow Christians, Pentecostal and otherwise, will make that same journey.-Phyllis Tickle, Author of The Great EmergenceDescriptionA New Kind of Pentecostalism is about advocating for dialogue between churches, denominations, cultures and even across world religions. Christianity is more than the interpretation of dogma, or reflection on the Holy Spirit and the scriptures. The person Jesus Christ makes the Church to be one, unites it into a single world community and makes it possible to transcend denominational differences. Pentecostalism is on the verge of becoming something radically new. God is calling His Church to move toward maturity, to demonstrate institutional flexibility, to reveal the power of divine love to mankind, to live the credo of tolerance and care for the world. A New Kind of Pentecostalism promotes social justice and reformation within the Pentecostal movement. This book is about the change that is urgently necessary today.
