Amaris Dreams LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Thirteen-year-old JAY LI HAMPTON hates her life at school. She is plagued by eczema that blotches her skin and makes her the target of cruel jokes and teasing, especially by TJ, the class bully. She doesn't believe her mother or her grandmother, who try to show her how beautiful she is on the inside. They try to explain that people who tease and bully are usually just trying to deflect their own internal pain and trouble onto someone else. Jay li simply feels that no one understands. Not surprisingly, Jay li is delighted when medication clears her skin and her mother gives her a new hairstyle and she is suddenly adopted by the coolest girls in class, the Triple D s, DIAMOND, DANAZI, and DAVEONA. She has arrived! She is popular! But Jay li soon finds that her friendship with the Triple D s is a false one, when they force her to shoplift with them at the local mall. When Jay li s mother finds out, she informs the Triple D s mothers and Jay li suddenly finds herself on the receiving end of their wrath at her betrayal. They make Jay li s life a misery with constant bullying, until Jay li, with the help of a guidance counsellor, realizes that only she can end the bullying, by standing up to the girls and revealing to the rest of the school what fakes and deceivers they really are. By facing her bullies and their falseness, Jay li suddenly realizes that she, in fact, LOVES her own life EXACTLY how she has been living it-eczema and all. Her new joy radiates to those around her, and even TJ...
