

Nothing to Lose

By Lee Child

Bantam Dell. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 531 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. In Child's 12th Reacher novel, Nothing to Lose, our man has decided to walk across the country diagonally from Maine to California. It's a stroll until he hits Despair, where he's run out of town for just showing up. The cops drop him at the neighboring town line, Hope. There, a friendly, really quite friendly deputy picks him up in a cruiser and they bond, first in trying to find out what kind of hell Despair is in, and then otherwise. It's a one-man town. Everything, including the excessively profitable metal recycling plant, is owned by a crazed evangelist. But then there's the inexplicably located high-grade military base a couple miles beyond. Despair has more than one secret and won't give them up easily. That makes Reacher mad. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
