

On Justifying Psychotherapy: Essays on Phenomenology, Integration and Psychology

By Ian Rory Owen

Paperback. Condition: New. 401 pages. This work is a compilation of papers that were published between the years 1992 and 2006 in internationally renowned peer reviewed journals. The perspective taken is applying Edmund Husserls phenomenology to a variety of practical and theoretical concerns in understanding and relating with clients. The common concern is understanding psychotherapy according to its lived experiences. The topics covered are definitions of leading terms such as empathy and intersubjectivity with respect to the original writings of Husserl and other writers. Attachment is also covered through understanding intersubjectivity. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
