Excerpt from Planting the Outposts: Thirty-Five Years Among the Children of the Plains I at last yield to the many requests that have come to me for a number of years from personal friends and leading Sunday-school workers to write from memory a little of my life and experience. When the Lord called me to this work I thought I was not qualified for it, but he closed up every other avenue and compelled me to make the work of a pioneer Sunday-school missionary my life work. Whatever I have been able to accomplish has been possible only through the hearty cooperation of the workers whom the Lord has directed me to set at work.
