Hendrickson Publishers. Paperback. Condition: New. Arlene Schuiteman has a lifetime of stories to tell. They ramble across the Iowa fields of her farm-family childhood, they settle into the one-room schoolhouses that nurtured her first years of teaching, and they sweep away to Africa, where her gentle hands nursed thousands. Sioux Center Sudan is the story of a missionary nurses eight years on a tiny mission station in Nasir, Sudan, during the 1950s the golden age of missions in America. There, Arlene faced immense challenges and yet learned to trust God in spite of the difficulties, including her unwanted expulsion from the country in 1963. Only decades later would she finally see the fruit of her work. Filled with fascinating details of intense medical situations, stories of Gods faithfulness, and periods of deep and personal grief, Arlenes journal entries could serve as a chapter in any textbook on the history of medical missions. Arlenes story also intersects with those of other contemporary women missionaries including Elisabeth Elliot, Eleanor Vandevort (A Leopard Tamed), and Betty Greene, pilot and cofounder of Missionary Aviation Fellowship. Quotes from letters between these women are included in the book. Arlene Schuiteman (b. 1924) grew up during the Great Depression on a farm north of Sioux Center, Iowa. During World War II, she taught at a one-room school. Then she experienced a supernatural event that led her to Africa and a 33-year career as a public health nurse and teacher of nurses in the Sudan, Ethiopia, and Zambia. In 2005, Arlene met Jeff Barker, who eventually wrote a series of plays based on Arlenes amazing adventures. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
