CASPIAN DIARY

Paperback. Condition: New. 464 pages. Shameful secrets, stifled memories, shattered dreams. Azadeh was born in Tehran, but she came of age at seventeen when she traveled across the world alone and penniless to free herself from abuse and poverty and to find the life of which her beloved mother was robbed. She was determined to educate herself and to reassemble her family in America to save them from their tragic destiny, but she quickly discovered that fairness and peace were...
