TOXIC GARBAGE (PAPERBACK)

Kelby Losack, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . TOXIC GARBAGE is like that perfect punk song: Dirty, propulsive, immediate, infused with anarchist spirit. And it's carried by a rag-tag central cast that, despite their flaws and scars, clearly care for each other. The balance Losack strikes between light and dark is killer. -Rob W. Hart, Elegant writing with well-crafted characters. -Bradley Sands, author of TV SNORTED MY BRAIN and SORRY I RUINED YOUR ORGY TOXIC GARBAGE is a power chord of dissonance, black comedy back beats pushed up against a bittersweet bass narrative that vibrates through your spine, leaving your heart pounding, your stomach in knots, and a strong desire to kick something into submission. -Richard Thomas, author of STARING INTO THE ABYSS Like all good punk, Kelby Losack's TOXIC GARBAGE blasts at a volume previous generations will find uncomfortable. This gripping debut gives readers a mohawked, pierced, Black Flag-worshipping descendant of Southern grit brutes like Harry Crews and Frank Bill. TOXIC GARBAGE starts around midnight and only gets darker from there with a potent mix of punk rock, dead bodies in duffle bags, heroin addiction, doomed road trips and, most importantly, the sunrise-bright glow of redemption. -Patrick Wensink, bestselling author of BROKEN PIANO FOR PRESIDENT Tommy kicks his heroin addiction, good for him, but now there's a corpse in his duffle bag and he's Mexico bound with his punk rock band mates and a six-year-old boy. Told by multiple characters in a back-and-forth narrative, TOXIC GARBAGE is a darkly funny and raw tale of troubled and eccentric friends.
