Note: GAO re-created the original photo provided by the FBI in order to optimize the appearance of the image. The employee removed the envelope from the mail processing machine, set the envelope aside on a tray and finished processing the bundle of mail that had accompanied the envelope. Within 10 minutes after discovering the envelope, the employee took the tray containing the envelope to the shift supervisor who was at the supervisory console, which was situated between 30 and 40 feet away from the employees workstation. Being cautious and a bit uncertain, the supervisor had the area cordoned off with orange cones and tape, and decided to evacuate the facility. At 12: 30 a. m. , he instructed the 20 employees in the building to evacuate the facility and called the facility manager at home around 12: 40 a. m. During the phone call, the facility manager asked the shift...
