Mike Synar (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Present: Representatives Synar and Clinger. Staff present: Sandra Z. Harris, staff director; Elisabeth Campbell, clerk; and Charli Coon, minority professional staff member. Mr. Synar. The subcommittee will come to order. The subcommittee meets today for the fifth time since 1989 to review the Interior Department s management of $2.1 billion held in trust accounts for native American tribes and individuals. More specifically, we are going to explore in detail what steps the Department has, or has not, taken to correct the serious management and accounting problems that have plagued this program for decades. We are going to discuss the Department s unwillingness to include tribal and other account-holder representatives in their planning and deliberations on trust fund activities, despite repeated congressional directives to do so. We are going to discuss the Secretary s failure to meet his basic fiduciary obligations to the tribal and individual Indian account holders. Over the years, the GAO, the inspector general, and outside accounting firms have issued scores of critical audit reports on the deficiencies in this program. We will be releasing yet another GAO audit report today. These problems, and the Department s refusal to correct them, were the subject of a scathing report unanimously adopted by the full House Government...
