Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When asked, nobody from The Crew can pin point when or how they all became friends. Just know that they hang tight and one on one for what is the motto for any altercation. Kayce is the spoiled brat of the group, at the age of 26 her parents still finance her needs and she hasn't experienced real adulthood. She uses her sex appeal to get any man she wants, until she caught the eye of a female that has her struggling with which team she wants to play for. Kevin is a male but he's one of the girls. After ending a stagnant relationship; he falls hard for a new guy. His new found love is everything that he's ever wanted in a man, but is slow to give their situation a title. The talk around town is that he's no good, but Kevin is willing to test the waters himself. Krissy is beauty and brains and working on her Masters degree in chemistry. She's on the road to graduation and wants to put an end to her secret love affair with her college professor. What she deemed as fun and games, he viewed as a courtship leading to marriage and is not giving her an easy way out. Kady is a single mother of two and is no stranger to hard times. Her past relationships have led her to a path of celibacy. She has watched her crush be unappreciated and mistreated by another from the sidelines. When the window of opportunity opens, she has to choose between maintaining that celibate vow to herself or getting the man she always wanted. Jaclyn has been unhappily...
