Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A History of the Manor of Beresford: In the County of Stafford More than forty years ago the writer published in The Reliquary a series of papers on The Northern Borders of Staffordshire. These included Buglawton, Bosley, Gawsworth, Wincle, and Macclesfield Forest in Cheshire, and the Moors and Moorlanders, Flash, Bald Stone, and Longnor, in Staffordshire. (See Saturday Review, September 22, 1866.) Portions of them have since been copied, e.g., in the Rev. W. Sutcliffe s Bosley, and in the late Sir P. L. Brocklehurst s Swythamley; and extracts, reappearing for weeks in a Buxton paper, brought Lud Church into notice. The present work on Beresford simply takes up the story of the Staffordshire Border where it was left, so long ago. The writer, however, has not only had the personal refreshment of turning from his clerical duties to this local history, but has also had the help of other members of the Beresford family, the present work being, indeed, designed as an introduction to a History of the several branches of the family. For this purpose very extensive collections have been made which are now in the writer s hands, and he hopes, that if the present volume be fairly welcomed, he may be spared to go on in Part II. with the story of the branches, in the company of the Rev. E. A. Beresford, restored to his usual health. A third part has been already published, and a few copies of it still may be had. We may explain here that the letters H. S. C., so frequently used in this little book, are an abbreviated expression of the many volumes in...
