Joseph Todhetley, I could not be encumbered with a child: the life of shifts and concealment I have to lead would debar it. I think Tod saw he was in earnest. But he stood in indecision: this dashed out his great hope. I should have been away from here last night, but that I got a drop too much and must wait till dark again, resumed Arne. The last time I saw Hugh was on Thursday afternoon. He was in the meadow with you. I did not see you, remarked Tod. I saw you, though. And that is the last time I saw him. Dont you believe me You may. I like the little lad, and would find him for you if I could, rather than help to lose him. Id say take my honour upon this, Joseph Todhetley, only you might retort that it has not been worth anything this many a year. And with justice, said Tod, boldly. True. The world has been against me and I against the world. But it has not come yet with me to stealing children. With the loan of the money now safe in my pocket, I shall make a fresh start in life. A precious long time your stepmother kept me waiting for it. She did her best. You ought not to have...
