THE EYE OF LIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Journey Navers finds herself in a terrifying nightmare, her life. During her waking hours, a spirit of a young girl reaches out to help her, but Journey doesn't know why, or who she is. In the Eye of Lies Journey retells her life story, one that haunts her. Determined to seek the truth behind her nightmarish dreams of murder, she learned her existence is a lie, and from her earliest memory, the truth isn't always right. Another lie, a teardrop falls. Sometimes your eyes bleed lies to hurt; sometimes they bleed lies to protect. Abused by their parents, Journey's brother, James, is hurt and then goes missing. In her effort to find out what happened to him she confronts her parents. Her father in an all-out rage, rapes her. Two months later, pregnant, Journey runs away. Befriended by a woman at a church who introduced herself as a social worker who could help, Journey trust the woman and goes with her to a shelter. Years later, she discovered the woman, whom she thought of as mother, withheld vital information. More than Journey could ever imagine. She gave up her baby for adoption. How could she possibly love a child that came from hatred? On constant guard of her parents finding her and knowing of the birth of a child she continuously looked in the shadows for the man she called father. But when she sees the newspaper headline; RAKESVILLE SHERIFF MISSING - BODY FOUND. Journey returns to her hometown of Rakesville, once there she unravels more mysteries to her past when she uncovered bones buried within a wall, and a teen boy who claimed to be her missing...
