

Says Who?

By Jr. John Stribling

Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 438 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. John Stribling was born in Chicago, IL on February, 1925. He grew up in the slums of the city and by the time he was old enough to attend school, the country was in a Great Depression. He learned to make the most of what he had. He graduated from Wendell Phillips High School in 1942 after 3 years. He was a member of the National Honor Society and the student conductor of the 100 piece school band. He also wrote the school song. He was selected from the entire study body to work as a General Office Assistant at the University of Chicago in a program that was later known as The Manhattan Project (which developed the atomic bomb). He holds the distinction of being the only U. S. citizen to have a Top Secret clearance at age 17. This position deferred him from military service until May of 1944. He was then drafted into the army where he was trained in several specialties. He graduated 2nd in a class of 250 students at the Ordnance Parts Clerical School after matching the course. The No. 1 student...
