Just when Cassandra isn t looking for anything or anyone, that s when Marco comes along; he s handsome, a great father to his son, and a business owner. Marco s had his share of women and often juggled relationships, but upon meeting Cassandra, his desire is kindled and he has to fight against wanting anything more than just a casual thing. With each day, they both fight the obvious; they want each other. A night of forbidden passion leads them into bed together; they soon wind up going back and forth, as Cassandra begins to date Damian to distract her from the one she really wants--Marco. The attraction is strong and the chemistry is explosive--will their efforts to ignore their hearts desire trump love, or will they finally give in to what is obviously meant to be?.
