Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Economiste majeur de la seconde moitié du XIXe siècle et du début du XXe, Yves Guyot (1843-1928), a consacré sa vie à combattre les préjugés de son temps. Dans l'ordre économique d'abord, il a pointé du doigt les sophismes et les fausses bonnes idées qui naissaient de bons sentiments, mais d'une observation trop imparfaite de la réalité et d'une négligence pour les relations causales. Dans cet ouvrage paru en 1872, c'est aux préjugés politiques qu'il s'attaque. À l'attention des conservateurs et des utopistes, qu'il renvoie dos à dos, il démonte une vingtaine de préjugés qui empêchent la France d'être une république tempérée, protectrice des droits et des libertés. Du manque de méthode dans la réflexion politique à l'attente déraisonnable d'un grand sauveur, tous nos préjugés y passent dans ce livre qui malheureusement n'a pas vieilli, tant nous avons peu abandonné nos anciennes chimères.
