Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Rhymes of a Homesteader Rhymes of a Homesteader The Sunflower Road There s a land of opal mountains, singing creeks, and springing fountains, A land of magic distances in hazy, lazy light, Where the pastel greens, and yellows, amber browns, and purple shadows, Make a glory of the daytime, and it s dusty blue at night. When the summer sun is burning, there a friendly road is turning, Twisting, bending, rising, falling - just a trail among the hills; But t is bordered by the graces of a million golden faces, And the laughter of the sunflowers frees the heart of all its ills. Now the winter snows are driven through the land; the trail is hidden. Desolate, the white hills glitter under skies of turquoise blue.
