Bellissima, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story of Summer continues with this sixth book in the Surfer Girl Series. Summer continues her ordinary, but extraordinary life as she follows both her dream and her legacy! Summer, her mother and her godmother, Jill, travel to Florida where Summer competes again in the USA National 10K Championships! Swim, sun and surf with Summer and her friends, and go with Summer on a brand new Florida adventure where she meets a boy named Kane. Summer is surprised to find herself attracted to Kane, because she is still going with Phillip. Summer, Jill and Kane have an exciting kayak experience; and Summer helps Kane in a manatee rescue. Summer doesn't win her race, but she is ready for next year; and that's when it will really count! Summer learns a lot about herself and her life; and her mother is beginning to accept that Summer is growing up now, and that Summer has her very own way of looking at life.
