George the Second on the throne of England, -snuffy old drone from the German hive-; Charles Edward Stuart (-bonnie Prince Charlie-) making ready for his great coup which, the next year, was to cast down said George from the throne and set Charles Edward thereupon as -rightful, lawful prince-for wha ll be king but Charlie?-, and which ended in Culloiden and the final downfall and dispersion of the Scottish Stuarts. In France, Louis XV., Lord of Misrule, shepherding his people toward the Abyss with what skill was in him; at war with England, at war with Hungary; Frederick of Prussia alone standing by him. In Europe, generally, a seething condition which is not our immediate concern. In America, seething also: discontent, indignation, rising higher and higher under British imposition (not British either, being the work of Britain s German ruler, not of her people!), yet quelled for the moment by war with France. I am not writing a history; far from it. I am merely throwing on the screen, in the fashion of today, a few...
