Play baseball with Charlie.and read how his disability never stopped him from winning the game. Run along with Harry, the hamster, to roam the pet shop at night searching for friends-But beware of the store cat. At a very young age I allowed my vivid imagination to create many bed time stories for my sisters-But it wasn't until the last few years that I actually began to bring them to life on paper. Now is the time to put my stories into book form, hopefully giving back all the pleasure the children gave to me.
