In the end, in every area such as long-term care, medical practice, and product development, we need to and can do better, and the tools for doing so are already at hand. The health care industry can and must undergo the same type of transformation toward a culture of quality and system for continuous improvement that the manufacturing sector has recently experienced. Our experts are here today to tell us that this is being done, and with our help, it can be done faster. The prepared statement of Senator Coleman follows: PREPARED OPENING STATEMENT OF SENATOR COLEMAN Good morning and welcome to todays hearing. In the 19th Century, Edward Jenners discovery pushed the boundaries of germ theory and disease. The use of antiseptics and anesthesia in surgery increased pub-lic health levels and sanitation. And, in the end, the simple act of washing ones hands transformed modern medicine by saving lives by preventing the spread of dis-ease. The topic today deals with how we can reduce...
