Winthrop, Jr., to express its sense of the loss it has sustained by the recent death of its senior Vice-President, Charles Deane, LL.D. After calling the meeting to order, the President, Dr. George E. Ellis, rose and said: - Gentlemen, - This special meeting of our Society is called and held as a tribute of our personal affection and esteem for, and an expression of our profound respect and grateful appreciation of, the character and the faithful and fruitful life-work of our late first Vice-President, Dr. Charles Deane. The meeting was prompted by our considerate host. The response to his invitation is spontaneous. Well do we know that the modesty and the unobtrusive spirit of our associate would have made him shrink from any greatly different method of our tribute...

Reviews

It is one of the most popular books. I am quite late in starting to read this one, but better than never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Camille Larson

The ebook is simple to go through better to fully grasp. It is actually really exciting through reading through period. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Alexander Jacobi
