Xulon Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Marsha Winters has been married for 16 years to her husband Samuel, who is one of the Pastors of their current church. She also prides herself in mothering her children. She has dedicated her life to ministering to thousands of people through various ways - such as preaching and teachings in her church - as well as other venues. Her heart has been for teens, girls, women, young adults and young married couples. Her book, The Threshing is a truly powerful testimonial of how she survived sexual, physical and emotional abuse. At the tender age of six, Marsha battled with many issues including sexual addiction. Despite what she thought, her insecurities, rejection, suicidal thoughts, and addictions made her a perfect candidate to be God's newest weapon. He made Himself known to her in the depths of her darkest moments. Even when she rejected Him time and time again, He refused to leave her side. Turning away from your past life of pain is not easy or quick, and that is seen in her testimony. Marsha's story is one of the most honest, truthful, real accounts of the transformation and the healing of a soul that was broken, beaten down and victimized, to a soul redeemed, renewed, and victorious. Go on a journey with her as she shares some of her most painful life changing moments. Let her show you how God made her into a new instrument, sharp and able to beat down every mountain that Satan placed before her. See how she became a weapon forged by fire.
