

Beloved . the Memoir of Thelma Seheult (H/C) (Hardback)

By Thelma Seheult

Paria Publishing Company Ltd., 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Yseult Bridges of the 1920s Thelma Seheult's personal story, written simply, captures a moment in time that no longer exists. Like Yseult Bridges in her classic Victorian memoir Child of the Tropics, Thelma, a generation later, describes with great charm and warmth her life in 20th century Trinidad: the houses she lived in, the family members and servants in whose midst she was raised, the small and the large adventures of growing up in the tropics, falling in love, raising a family. A unique and nostalgic account of a vanished world in which life was lived at a slower pace, and in which not all was rosy, as Thelma often points out with a critical eye, but in which being Beloved was the most important aspect of all relationships. It was nearly 20 years ago that I first read mum's memoir which she wrote down in three diaries. A few months ago, while going through family papers, came across my mother's memoir and re-read it. This time, with new eyes, I recognised my mother's voice; the matter...
