THE LOVE AT HOME HANDBOOK: STORIES AND PRINCIPLES TO FOSTER LOVE AT HOME

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One of the truly unique features of this book is it shows us how to foster the peace and tranquility in our mind and emotions that make it possible to have peace and tranquility in our relationships. We learn to manage the thoughts and feelings that drive behavior. And we do it with easy to understand, but engaging, real-life stories. If you like stories you will love this book. This is a needed and practical guidance oriented book. It is well written, and driving it with stories makes it read very easily. I found myself mining nuggets of advice and stories that might find their way into a sermon. Dr. Stan Copeland, Senior Pastor, Lovers Lane United Methodist Church. I really like this book. It is a reader friendly, practical road map for improving family relationships. Filled with illustrative stories and examples of Christ-oriented relationship principles, along with helpful suggestions for applying them in families, it is a wonderful resource for all who are interested in personal growth and happiness in family life. Ted P. Asay, Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist Having been a bishop, I feel that the principles described in the book can be helpful to all families as they deal with everyday life. The examples and stories that are used to illustrate the principles make the application of how to use them come to life! I have found them to be clear, interesting, and helpful. Bruce Kimball, former LDS bishop Real-life stories illustrate Christian parenting principles and how to have a peaceful marriage. See why anger is both friend and foe and learn how to defuse it. Learn why we are driven to keep up with the...
